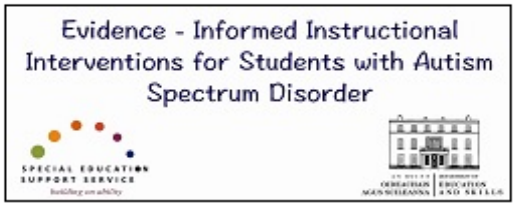
'Evidence Informed Instructional Interventions for Students with Autism Spectrum Disorder'

Special Education Support Service (SESS) is promoting autism awareness by highlighting both resources and evidence informed interventions to support the learning and teaching of students with autism in Ireland.



SESS has developed a video (20 mins) to demonstrate a number of evidence-informed instructional interventions that teachers working with students with Autism Spectrum Disorder in Ireland may draw upon to promote and facilitate development and learning.

Insint Shóisialta

Cén fáth a mbaintear úsáid as Insint Shóisialta?

"Úsáidtear Insint Shóisialta nó scéalta a dhéanann cur síos sách cruinn ar shuíomhanna sóisialta trí dhíriú ar noda ábhartha agus a thugann samplaí ar fhreagairt go hoiriúnach.

Bíonn an Insint Shóisialta dírithe go haonaránach de réir riachtanais an dalta, de ghnáth (bíonn sé) sách gairid agus b'fhéidir le pictiúir nó áiseanna amhairc san áireamh"

Learning to ask for help
My name is vvv
XXXXXXXXXX
I go to St.
Sometimes children need help. They might need help to open the zip on their coat. To say help me please is a good idea.
When the zip on my coat gets stuck I will try to say

Learning to say my Lines at the right time.

My name is Xxxx. I go to St XXXX school. There are many children and many adults in my school. In my school we often have different plays before Christmas. First we had our dance show. We danced to the "Muppets". Many adults told me that I was very good at dancing on the stage.
This week Rang 7 and Rang 8 are doing the Nativity play. Xxxxx is Mary, Xxx is Joseph and Xxxxxx is an angel. I am a king. Look at the picture of me! My class and Rang 8 will give the play 2 or 3 times on Thursday and on Friday.

Sampla

In the play most of us have lines to say. I say "Welcome to our Christmas play". Later I also say "a present for the baby".
Sometimes some of the children might shout when it is not his or her turn to speak. When that happens the audience can't hear the lines. It is important to hear the lines to know what the play is about.
When I say my lines the others try to be quiet. They try to be quiet so that our guests can hear what I am saying.
I try to be quiet when my class mates say their lines.
Being quiet when others say their lines is a clever thing to do. My class mates and adults are happy when I try to be quiet during the play.

well done
